Send a Remembrance Gift to a Wounded Yank This Christmas

Red Cross Mails to Ships, Hospitals

"CEASE FIRING"—Two words that brought peace to the whole world—the most welcome that America has heard since Pearl Harbor!

"KEEP WORKING"—the challenge to all volunteer workers on Camp and Hospital service of The American Red Cross.

The joy of freedom cannot overshadow the needs of our wounded Heroes who for weeks and months must reap the victory on beds of pain. The battle for us is not over. Until our wounded are brought home, until smiles dissipate suffering, we must devote ourselves unstintingly and sympathetically to this privilege at hand. What Christmas means to us we must share with them. Can we express our gratitude in any more fitting way than with remembrance gifts at Christmas?

For our wounded in hospitals overseas, too ill to return home, and for those on hospital ships at Christmas, Sierra Madre has been asked to send 250 Christmas boxes. Each box will contain six gifts separately wrapped and a Christmas card will be enclosed, and the completed boxes, all of which will be alike, will be wrapped in Christmas paper, with a greeting from Sierra Madre.

There are 23 organizations in the city and many individuals not identified with Camp and Hospital who will doubtless be more than glad for the opportunity to sponsor a good number of these boxes as their GIFTS OF REMEMBRANCE. Our shipment must be made October 1. We have had great difficulty in securing the materials for these gifts which are now on hand, and as a consequence the time is short. May we hope for your quick response? For further details call Chapter House, Mrs. Peterson, 6183; Mrs. R. C. Lewis, 5608; Mrs. N. B. Patton, 4748; or Mrs. Edward C. Young, 6038. Boxes will be packed at Chapter House and we will ask help from the various organizations.

Our Christmas record was brilliant last year. We have great reason to excel it this year.

LT. GEO. W. GROTH, JR. COLUMBIA MEDICAL

Following the completion of medical field training course at Carlisle Barracks, Pa., Lt. George W. Groth Jr. has been sent to Columbia University Medical Center in New York for advanced training in neuropsychiatry. This will be a 12-week course. There is a great need for neuropsychiatrists in the armed forces and this need will continue for considerable time to come.

VETERANS' CORNER

EDITOR'S NOTE—This portion of the paper will be devoted to information for service men returning to civilian life. We suggest clipping this material each week and keeping it for the man in your family who will eventually return.

It would be impossible to discuss in this small space the legal rights of veterans, since all of their rights are legal. They are all created by statute whether they have reference to insurance, loans, education, pensions or exemptions. Some of these rights are created by Federal statute, others are created by State statute.

These rights are of interest to the veteran only to the extent that they apply to his particular case and for that reason a general discussion of these rights would serve no practical purpose. The veterans should not lose sight of the fact that it is the purpose of the law to see that he is placed, so far as is possible, in a position of equality with those citizens who did not serve in the armed forces. Thus, if he can honestly say that he has been placed at a disadvantage in any particular case, because of the fact that he has served his country, then there is without a doubt a provision of law to place him in a position of equality. The veteran should have no hesitancy in calling upon the members of the various professions and upon veterans' organizations for an explanation of his rights as they apply to his particular case.

Fr. Smith will conduct the weekday and Sunday services of the church beginning Thursday, September 20. A parish and community reception is being planned for a later date.

Attendance at Park Warrants City in Continuing Program

Attendance of citizens of "Our town" at the City Park during the summer has been so large that the Recreation Commission felt justified in asking the City Council for additional funds to continue the program through the fall months. Jack Butler, secretary of the commission reported to the Council as to attendance and evident enjoyment by citizens. The Council granted the request.

Maj. Arnold Bode Serving in Manila

Maj. Arnold G. H. Bode whose wife Betty and son William reside at 410 W. Montecito Ave., is serving with the 384th Medical General Dispensary in Manila.

Maj. Bode entered the Army as a reserve officer in September, 1939, and embarked for overseas in July, 1945. He is graduate of the University of California medical school.

His parents are Dean and Mrs. Arnold G. H. Bode.

Now that We Are at Sea

Mrs. Edward Clinton Young is sharing the appreciation note which she received from the USS Hospital Ship, Comfort, regarding the gifts from the Hospital Committee of the local Red Cross. The note reads: "Now that we are at sea, I realize how much all the little things are going to mean to us. Already the ashtrays and paper baskets give a tiny touch of color here and there, in an otherwise drab room. The scrapbooks are piled handy by in our cabinet, ready for the sick men who so often are too tired to read much of anything and yet want some amusement. I am saving the photograph too for the time when we have a load of patients."

Mary and Sheila Webster, daughters of the Leslie A. Websters of Lima, have enrolled at Ramona Convent, Alhambra, for the school year. Tommy Webster with Billie Burns, son of the Wm. Burns of Montecito, entered St. John Bosco School for Boys at Bellflower last Sunday.

Sierra Madre Accepts Invitation; Will Have Float in Rose Parade

MAYOR FROELICH APPOINTS CITY CLERK ROBERTSON CHAIRMAN

ALFRED DEWEY WILL DESIGN

Sierra Madre will enter a float in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade, Tuesday, January 1, 1946, as a result of City Council action Tuesday evening. Councilman Reynolds presented a motion placing the council on record as being willing to give the same support to the float committee as it has in previous years and instructing the city clerk to notify the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association of the city's intention to participate.

Mayor Froelich appointed City Clerk Eddie Robertson chairman of the float committee. In accepting this chairmanship Robertson said "This float represents all of Sierra Madre and it is my desire that all groups and organizations have a part in its construction."

Theme of the 1946 rose pageant will be "Victory, Unity and Peace," and Alfred J. Dewey, who will design the float is most enthusiastic about his plans for the entry. He is very secretive about the theme selected but is undoubtedly convinced that it will be most outstanding. Mr. Dewey suggested to the Council that on New Year's eve when the actual work of placing the flowers on the float is being done, a band be hired and a few bright lights be installed and all of Sierra Madre turn out for the event. He proposed constructing the float in the parking lot adjoining the city hall and serving hot coffee in the city hall basement.

The Sierra Madre News has a desperate situation to meet. We can't find a house for our superintendent with his family to move into. They are being evicted October 7 and we have run the city over with a rental vacuum at positively no avail. This man is absolutely essential to the news office and we can't allow him to return to Wisconsin. If you have a suggestion for a family of four kindly call Mrs. Ward at the News office, CU. 5-3335.

Kindergarten showed the highest increase in attendance, 70 having already registered, according to Supt. Henry Korsmeier.

L. R. Goshorn's Brother Makes Library Gift

Making his second visit to Sierra Madre in five years, H. R. Goshorn arrived early Friday morning by motor from Philadelphia to visit his brother, L. R. Goshorn, former publisher of the Sierra Madre News. He was accompanied by his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James P. McCulley, also of Philadelphia, where Mr. McCulley is an executive of the Atlantic Refining Co. The McCulleys went on to San Diego to visit their son, Hardy McCulley, daughter-in-law and grandson, Harry Goshorn McCulley, whose father is a Naval officer. Mr. Goshorn is a retired executive of the Philadelphia Transportation Co., operator of the street railways, subways, elevated railroads and bus lines in the Quaker city. He came here five years ago for a two-week visit and was so charmed with this place that he remained for six months, during which he took a great interest in the local public library. This time he brought with him three volumes of the writings of Girard, noted newspaper columnist and author, to be presented to the library and which will be of much interest to former Pennsylvanians, especially those of Eastern Pennsylvania and the Philadelphia area.

LT. COMDR. CARTER HOME ON LEAVE

Lt. Comdr. Paul Carter is back in Sierra Madre on a 60-day terminal leave, trusting that he may soon be a part of civilian life. He is accompanied by Mrs. Carter and they will eventually re-occupy their home on Mt. Wilson Trail.

City Tax Set $59,035.50

The amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation for revenue to carry on the various departments of the city for the year 1945-46 was set at $59,035.50.

In order to raise this amount it was necessary to increase the tax rate 10 cents on the assessed $100 valuation.

The increase is broken down as follows: Four cents for the park department. There is need of a new roof, walk repair, horseshoe courts repair and additional help. The next 4-cent increase is for the library; more books and other needs. The remaining 2-cent increase is to take care of interest and sinking fund.

The rate to be allocated to each fund is as follows: General fund, $1; library fund, 23 cents; park fund, 15 cents; interest and sinking fund, 62 cents, making a total of $2, the rate per $100 assessed valuation.

Wee Lass o' Five Makes Trip to Far Away Home

English Niece of Comdr. Woodworth

Little five year old Naomi Beck, niece of Commander and Mrs. Philip R. Woodworth, left Sierra Madre August 19th for England to see her own home, father and baby sister for the first time. Naomi's mother, Mrs. Anthony Beck of Thorp Market, Norfolk, England, came to the United States in August, 1940 to be with the Woodward family in Illinois, where Naomi was born in November of that year. The following June Mrs. Beck returned to England, leaving Naomi in the care of her sister, Mrs. Woodworth. Not long after that, when Dr. Woodworth joined the Navy, Naomi started her travels with the family around the U.S., ending in Sierra Madre in 1944. After the European war ended it took some time to get permission for Naomi to enter England. When this was gained a Welsh couple was found in Los Angeles who were returning to England and who were glad to assume the responsibility of taking Naomi with them. They boarded the Aquitania, on which there were four hundred evacuees returning home, September 4th a cable was received that the child had arrived home safely. Naomi can claim either England or America as her native land, having been born here of English parentage.

General Pierce Recently Freed from Jap War Prison in Manchuria

Mrs. Clinton A. Pierce went to San Francisco to welcome her husband, Brig. Gen. Pierce, who was captured by the Japanese on Corregidor in 1942 following a gallant delaying fight on Luzon. He arrived at Hamilton Field Tuesday.

Mrs. Pierce was in the Philippines with her husband and remained in Manila until the War Department adjudged the area not safe for civilians. She was a close personal friend of Mrs. Wainwright and returned with her. Mrs. Pierce has lived in Sierra Madre with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William V. King at 375 E. Grand View, during the war.

Local Man Finds Jap on Island

Lt. J. S. Williams, 82 West Alegria, is a member of the crew of the USS Weehawken who recently found ten Japs among the seashells on a captured Pacific island where the sailors had landed for a few hours of relaxation.

The crew had just sampled their precious rations when they heard the yells of a wandering shell picker who had spotted a Jap in one of the many caves along the shore. The ship's shore patrol quickly took over and approached the cave with 45-caliber pistols. The Japs hesitated at first but after a few shots they struggled out.

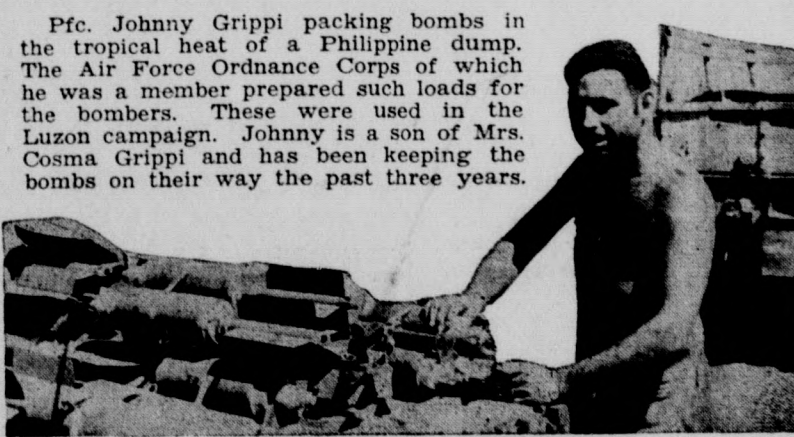

The Army then arrived on the scene and marched them back to barracks.

GEORGE BABBITT PROMOTED

George N. Babbitt received his promotion to corporal August 18 at Buckingham Field, Fla., and the same day was notified of the illness of his father, Robert Babbitt. George is home on emergency furlough assisting in the care of his father. He has been trained as a gunner for a B-29.

FLAG OF CHINA SEEN IN SIERRA MADRE

Without doubt last Thursday was the first time in history that the Chinese flag ever floated in Sierra Madre. It was raised with the United States flag in recognition of China's relief from Jap troops. Eighty thousand air borne Jap troops in American transports (the largest movement so far at one time) were flown from western China to Nanking. Dr. J. Earl Gossard, chairman of the local committee of China Relief, raised the flags at the Union Oil Station by their courtesy.

LIBRARY PLANS FOCUS ON MEMORIAL DATA OF WORLD WAR II

Public to Co-operate

The Community interest in the new library plans takes a fresh start with the close of the war. The August meeting of the Library Board found the members busy studying plans for the new building.

Sierra Madre's memorial to her honored sons and daughters of World War II had special attention. If it is legally possible the word MEMORIAL will be inserted in the present official name to read SIERRA MADRE (MEMORIAL) FREE LIBRARY. In addition a special room to be called the SIERRA MADRE ROOM will include a bronze tablet keeping always before our grateful citizens the names of those from here who gave their lives. This room is planned to be one of simple beauty to house such educational gatherings as those following the programs of Art Guild; or small study groups needing library materials; or radio listening groups such as those following the program of the Town Meeting of the Air, or symphonic or operatic concerts. The walls and lighting are to be suited to art exhibits of local and other artists. Display space will be provided for books by Sierra Madre authors as well as for valuable local history materials.

A Memorial Volume will be given an honored place. This is to contain full name, rank, with places and dates of service of all who have served in the recent conflict from OUR TOWN. For this, towns people are asked to co-operate at once by leaving on printed blanks provided at the Library or the News office full correct information about their own families or friends. This record is an honor to the history of Sierra Madre. It must be complete and accurate. Please make this possible NOW while information is fresh in mind. There is no other such permanent record in town.

Installation of Legion Officers

Nollac Home Scene of Ceremony

After a supper served in the Walter Nollac garden, 507 East Grand View Avenue, American Legion Post No. 297 held their installation of officers, Monday evening. Dr. Harvey, Past Commander of the eighteenth district assisted by his adjutant, Claude Barnard, installed the following officers for 1945-46: Commander, Henry Clay Pruitt; 1st Vice Commander, Vinton Hoegee; 2nd Vice Commander, Cameron Dickinson; Adjutant, G. Russell Lovejoy; Service Officer, Roy Pickett; Finance Officer, Stanley V. Cutler; Chaplain, Bruce Linville; Sergeant at Arms, G. R. Lovejoy Sr. Bruce McGill, retiring commander, emphasized the importance that World War II veterans were now actively in charge of the Post. He expressed the hope that veterans of World War II would join the American Legion because the organization is dedicated to the rehabilitation of veterans, and the protection of the widows and orphans of the men who gave their lives for their country. He pledged the continued co-operation of the World War I veterans in helping World War II boys solve their problems.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies the LaLone brothers played a guitar accompaniment, while the veterans of both wars joined in song. Twenty-seven veterans were present, the largest attendance for some time and the future for Post 297 looks very bright.

Judge John Sturgeon of Monrovia was a guest of the Post and was a guest of his many acquaintances here.

Mrs. Walter Nollac assisted by Mrs. Vinton Hoegee and Mrs. Bruce McGill prepared and served the meal.

MICHIGAN PICNIC

The Michigan Association of Southern California announces to the "Wolverines" through its president, Dr. Floyd I. Beckwith, that the all-day autumn reunion will be held Saturday, September 15, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles. A fine program is assured. Coffee, badges, registers available, with promise of a happy get-together.

FIRE FLAMES

The only reason I can figure that firemen are the same wherever you find them is that if they are not firemen when they first join the group, they soon are. A certain type of person enjoys the thrill of fighting fire and in doing something for his community. The result is we have many of the same character together. The average fireman is of the type who is to be relied upon for honesty and good nature. Because of this, there has developed a fraternity among firemen that is a real brotherhood. We find this among our own members and among others whom we have occasion to visit and meet in business sessions. Firemen do not withhold anything. Not even when they enjoy themselves. The reputation of the past of the "visiting firemen" no longer exists. Present-day men of the fire service challenge other organizations to show a closer relationship among their members. The true spirit of common brotherhood has been proven many times. (One might imagine that the writer was going religious.) Believe it or not, we are proud of our relationship toward each other, and woe unto the guy who tries to tear it asunder.

Our "old timer" Bob Babbitt at this writing is a very sick man. Although Bob is a young man in years, he is to us an old timer because of his long membership in the department. We are all pulling for him with all the strength of firemen. We also want to pull hard for "Peggy" his wife. She is doing a wonderful job during the trials of sickness. It is suggested that before going to see Bob, you find out if it is advisable at the time. He is much in need of rest and should not be disturbed during a rest period.

It's too bad we have to have these "three weekers." If a month has five Fridays in it, there is nothing else we can do but grin and bear it. If the above relationship proves to be as great as I think it is, I wouldn't be surprised if some of the boys might be looking to be kissed.

One of our former firemen who is now at home on a furlough from the Army has "went and got married." Yes, Ellett Jackson took to himself a sweet young bride. We will soon learn if the Army has taught a fellow to hold his own. He was smart enough to pick himself a small girl. Maybe he has an idea that this will aid him in getting in his punches. Well, he might just as well give up the idea—I tried that one. We will be glad to learn that Ellett has been discharged from the Army. We can make good use of him in the fire department.

Just why we haven't had fires in some of the locations where real fire hazards have been found is profound good luck. Folks will insist that because they have been doing the same thing for 20 or 30 years, there is little sense in mentioning it now. Fire can be classed as an accident and if accidents were a common thing, we would pay little or no attention to them. We do, however, admit

Sapphire Blue Corduroy for Campus Frees Extra Dollars for War Bonds

Around-the-clock, around-the-calendar cost in sapphire blue corduroy is a wardrobe essential for the campus. Roomy, raglan sleeves, deep pockets and tie-belt are favorite features with school girls. Costs are as simple to sew as dresses and save many an extra dollar for War Bonds when they're made at home. Choose your sport coat from the many models in the pattern catalogs.

U. S. Treasury Department

that when they do happen they are the cause of much anxiety. We realize that danger is lurking around the corner. Such things as burning trash in the open and in the midst of dry inflammable materials is still being practiced by some of our residents. And these are not all newcomers. It is really surprising to have people who have been residents of Sierra Madre for nearly a lifetime, object to being asked not to burn in a hazardous place. They are usually those who insist that nothing has ever happened. If we are to retain our good record of few fires and small fire losses, we must insist on being careful.

During the seriousness of the wedding the other evening, when Ellett Jackson "took the oath," Fred Lewis as an usher was very much annoyed by a Cocker Spaniel dog that was determined to enter the church. Just as the minister asked Ellett if he took the girl for life, Fred picked up the dog to take it from the church. At this juncture, the dog put forth a howl that the preacher must have taken for "No-o-o-o!" He looked up from his book and gave Ellett a look that must have convinced Ellett for he very meekly answered, "I do." FIRES OUT.

Announcement has been made of the birth of a son, Raymond Allen, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terhorst, September 4, at Garfield hospital in Alhambra. The father is stationed at Pearl Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Boon arrived Sunday from Detroit, Mich., to be the guests of the William Stoddards of E. Montecito. They plan on buying a house here and making Sierra Madre their home.

Dear Folks:

The O.P.A. have given tenants 6 months' breathing spell to find a place if their rental has been sold.

An owner who owned a rental before rent control needed give only a month's notice to gain possession.

If such owner desired possession of his house and tenant couldn't find a rental or an owner occupied home to purchase and as a last resort is forced to purchase a tenant-occupied home (possession in 6 months) what's going to happen to him?

Vacation is over and schools are open. Thank God, say the mammas.

Have been out of circulation for some time. What's cooking?

Yours,

Canyon News

Last Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Richardson, 707 Woodland Dr., gave one of their delightful shuffleboard parties. Among the Canyon guests were L. H. Heath, Harvey Heming, Frank Cox, Gene Calkins, J. R. Widdis, and from Sierra Madre were Albert Whaley, Elisha Bever, Newton Clark and John Chambers. The contest was spirited and the winners were considered a draw. The guests assembled at the Harvey Heming residence to enjoy the wonderful view of the valley and proceeded to the Richardson home for a repast of delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Worthington and family, 525 Brookside Lane, returned last Thursday from a delightful three weeks at Ensenada, Mex., and Lake Arrowhead.

Mrs. Ruth Metzger and sons of Sunnyside Lane are back in Sierra Madre after two months with relatives in Iowa.

Editor's Note: We would very much like to revive the Canyon News, a former feature of this paper. The co-operation of residents will be much appreciated. If you have guests from out of the city, service men home on furlough, leave or back to civilian life; if there is a new baby in the neighborhood, marriage or serious illness, we would appreciate a phone call, CU. 5-3335.

FORD OWNERS!

UNCLE SAM "borrowed" some of our mechanics

Naturally, Uncle Sam can have anything we've got—but we sure miss those GI mechanics. That's why today you sometimes may have to wait a little while to have your car serviced.

But we want you to know we're doing our best to help keep your car rolling because we both know "there's a Ford in your future." Until it arrives, thanks for being patient.

Be CAREFUL and Be SAFE!
YOUNG FOLKS CAN HELP PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Cross busy streets only where there is police or traffic signal protection.

It's best to go right home after school—make "off the sidewalk" out of bounds.

Don't put hands or arms out of windows of streetcars and buses. Serious injury might result.

"Watch your step" when you get off buses or streetcars. Wait in the safety zone until traffic is clear.

Never walk around behind streetcars when you get off. This is very dangerous and you are likely to be hurt.

Streetcar and bus operators will be as careful as possible, but you must help to make this a "safe" school year.

The Frog

TALKS about
ROBERTS MARKET and Things!

"Touched by a light that hath no name,
A glory never sung,
Aloft on sky and mountain wall
Are God's great pictures hung."
—Whittier.

MOM AND POP said for me to tell you they had a very nice trip to the Bay City but were glad to be back in Ourville. They were not too proud of the reports they heard regarding V-J Day up there. Things were a bit on the boisterous side and not to be condoned.

MOM WAS ASKED the low-down on canning sugar. Here it is from O.P.A.: "Issuance of home canning sugar will terminate Saturday, Sept. 15. No application will be accepted after that date but all requests received prior to that date will be honored. Once issued, certificates will be good until revoked."

AS I SIT HERE on my haunches I have to admire the attitude of the many shoppers; share and share alike seems to be their way of thinking (we do have a lovely class of people coming in here)—for instance, by a recent poll conducted by the Woman's Home Companion, 84% of the women of the nation voted to continue rationing so that we could feed our Allies. Unselfish to say the least!

SPEAKING OF MY DEPARTMENT—and after all that is the thing I am most interested in because I do spend a great deal of time right in the same old SPOT—if any of you ladies want pears for canning, you had better be getting same right away, quick—Lake County Barilets—and don't say I didn't tell you! There are no canned pears on POP'S grocery shelves.

CURRY EGG FRENCH DRESSING

To one cup of French Dressing add 2 hard-cooked eggs, finely chopped, and 1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon of curry powder. Delicious with green salad or cold salmon. You can cook fresh salmon and serve same.

HAVE YOU EVER bought a can of those little Oven-Ready Buttermilk Biscuits (Ballard's) that POP has in the ice box? Melt a little Nucoa or butter in a pan and turn biscuits in this, then make a slight depression in same and put in jelly or jam and bake. The kiddies like 'em!

IT CERTAINLY IS WITH a feeling of relief that we know our boys are coming back to join us in civilian life knowing with satisfaction that they have done a job to be proud of—"to the victor belong the spoils." So long as we knew we were in the right there could be no other answer.

BE STRONG

It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong,
How hard the battle goes, the day how long.
Faint not, fight on! Tomorrow comes the song.

Stansbury Recital Received with Praise*$500 Goal Not Made takes great pleasure in the complete success of its Benefit Recital held Friday evening, in the school auditorium.

Miss Charline Stansbury as presented by her teacher, Mrs.

program designed to please her audience and as a medium to convey the rare quality of her voice.
She was smartly gowned in a audience with a wealth of quality interpretation. The accompaniments by Mr. Riherd were skillfully done with musicianly judgment as to support and feeling.

LUNCH ON SCHOOL DAYS

The children are back in school again and there is a quietness about the house. If they come home for lunch, you have a wonderful opportunity to bring an extra bright spot into their day—
and into yours too—a time when they can eagerly tell of the mornings' adventures as they eat the nutritious and tasty lunch you have prepared.

Remember in preparing the child's lunch:

1. Color is important—color of food, and color of linen and china.
2. Small servings and then second helpings rather than a plate piled high.
3. Foods cut for ease in eating.
4. Foods served in different forms—don't insist on a glass of milk at every meal. Let the milk be in a nudding or soup.
5. Always one hot dish.

SCALLOPED PEANUT BUTTER

Carl Hansen Points to New Motor Laws Effective Sept. 15

"Several changes in the California Motor Vehicle Code enacted at the last session of the State Legislature, mainly refinements of existing regulations, become effective September 15," says Mr.
Hansen.

Primarily among these is a new law prohibiting motorists from turning right against a stop signal except when such is authorized by appropriate signs.

The Code now forbids the locking of any person inside a standing automobile unless such person can readily escape therefrom, and increases penalties severely for violating pedestrians' right-of-way in cross walks when such violations result in death or injury to pedestrians.

Motorists in the future, however, may make their own changes of address on registration certificates and operators' licenses, but the Department of Motor Vehicles in Sacramento must be promptly notified of such changes.

It isn't all over—
Over Here

At a time when all America is rejoicing over final Victory, it isn't easy to sound a somber note. But the effects of years of war cannot be erased overnight. The return to normal conditions will take place gradually—step by step.

So it is with the railroads... with Union Pacific. Millions of men and women in service have yet to be returned to their homes. And, unfortunately, there will be others whose destination will be a hospital or rehabilitation center. Because Union Pacific is a transcontinental railroad, uniting the East with the West Coast, a large share of this job will fall on our shoulders. You want these men and women to be returned home with utmost speed—and so do we—but at best it will take months and the use of a large part of our passenger equipment.

For this reason we ask the civilian public not to expect an immediate betterment in the transportation situation. For the railroads, as for industry generally, there must be a period of reconversion.

So we say—please be patient. Normal peacetime operation will be resumed as quickly as possible and, as in the past, the progressive Union Pacific will provide unexcelled facilities and service.

AROUND AND ABOUT

By EDWARD LLOYD VOORHEES

NIMES—WHERE TWO WORLDS MEET—I. An hour after visiting Uzes that morning, and half way to Nimes, our car turned into the narrow valley of the river Gard, a branch of the Rhone, and our chauffeur announced that in a few moments we would halt for an hour at "the Pont du Gard. When our car stopped we found ourselves in a low flat meadow, green with grass and bushes and a few scattered trees through which we saw glimpses of the river nearby, narrow and quiet on this fine June day, but capable, as I later read, of rising 18 to 20 feet in a few hours during the winter rains, when it sometimes becomes a mile wide. Presently we saw, towering above the trees ahead of us as we walked, a sight which soon stamped its image upon my mind as one of the supreme surviving architectural and engineering wonders of the ancient world.

There before us, spanning the little stream and its valley from rim to rim were three tiers of majestic stone arches, rising one above the other to the aerial height of 160 feet—massive in reality, yet, in effect, of incredible lightness—with a total span of 800 feet, visible from end to end where the top tier of the three disappeared over the rim of the valley's rock walls. The patina of age which 19 centuries have laid upon this stupendous stone relic, with moss, grasses, and shrubs clinging to it, makes the triple-linked vertebrate structure seem like some suddenly exposed section of old Earth's backbone. What we were in reality looking at, of course, was a bridge of stone arches, built "probably" during the time of the Emperor Augustus by those master stoneworkers, the Romans, to carry across the river Gard and its highest water mark the aqueduct which supplied with fresh spring water the city which is now called Nimes, and to carry the traffic as well—chariots, carts, pedestrians, and military equipment, on any one of three levels, depending upon the height of the river at any particular season.

To realize the simple dimensional figures of this ancient structure is almost as impressive as to gaze upon the structure itself. The arches of the lowest tier, based upon the river-bottom and the adjacent ground, are six in number, one with a span of 75 ft., the other five of 60 ft. each. The top of this tier is a broad stone roadway supporting the second tier of arches, 11 in number, each with a span of 75 ft.—this second tier being much longer than the lower one in order to span the greater width of the valley at this height. This second tier of arches also supports a broad pavement used as a road, and also a third tier of arches, 35 in number and so small in size as to give the effect at that height of being a merely decorative cornice, but in reality these are the arches which support the specus or enclosed water channel of the aqueduct, surmounted by a third roadway. It is interesting to note that the water of Roman aqueducts was carried above the ground purely for economy, in order that leaks might become immediately evident and repairs made easily; and also to avoid the necessity of using bronze or lead pipe which was very expensive then as now. And for various engineering reasons Roman aqueducts did not extend in a straight line—this one of the Pont du Gard, for instance, originally covered some 25 miles in order to bring to the ancient Nemausus (Nimes) the water from springs which were only 10 miles away by direct line.

My excitement and instant admiration at the sudden spectacle of this engineering feat and its architectural beauty, led me to spend the whole hour of our stop examining at close range its structure and material. Reluctant to miss anything, I climbed the hill to the rim of the valley, and mounted to the roadway, some nine or 10 feet wide, which forms the roof of the aqueduct itself. Walking along on this until I reached a section where this roadway had been broken away, I let myself down into the aqueduct channel itself—which is now of course dry—and found I could walk upright under its roof.

While in the middle of the span and still on top I paused to view the panorama. Upstream I saw the glistening river come sliding like glass out of deep, winding rocky gorges between forest-covered hills; and then looking straight down from this narrow "safety-zone" and feeling, I confess, rather shaky but thrilled at the sheer and unprotected drop of 160 feet to the river below, I could see the meadow among the trees, dwarfed by my angle and distance of vision, the string of autos arriving and disgorging Sunday picnickers and tourists, like a doll parade. Reaching the farther rim of the valley, I now descended to the second or middle tier of arches and returned by its broader roadway to the point where it touched the opposite side of the valley again. Meanwhile, I had ample time to examine the construction material—8-2-2-ft. blocks of beautifully cut stone of brownish-gray, perfectly joined to stand there perhaps for another 1900 years as a monument to Roman genius. Although smaller and shorter than some other Roman aqueducts, the Pont du Gard, in the opinion of John Malcolm, Oxford classicist, "As a bridge . . . has no rival for lightness and boldness of design among the existing remains of works of this class carried out in Roman times." And that hour at the Pont du Gard remains in my memory as one of the highest points of my own personal contact with "the grandeur that was Rome."

all of you who helped*

When Japan bombed Pearl Harbor, Southern Pacific became perhaps the most strategic railroad in the United States. Serving the West Coast ports of embarkation from San Diego to Portland, and more military and naval establishments than any other railroad, we were called upon to handle an enormous load.

We were able to handle this load successfully because of the great work of railroad men and women up and down the line, and with the help and cooperation of thousands of people not actually working for the railroad.

Now the war is over. The job is done. But we of Southern Pacific will never forget the way people stood by us when the task sometimes seemed bigger than our railroad.

We send our sincere thanks——to the Army, Navy and Government authorities for their sympathetic understanding of our problems.

—to the shippers who cheerfully put up with delays so that more vital war freight could go through on time, and who cooperated in many ways to conserve equipment.

—to our passengers, for their good-natured acceptance of crowded trains and other wartime discomforts.

—to the thousands of people who stayed off the trains to make room for service men and other essential travelers.

—to the press and radio which understood our operating difficulties and kept the public informed.

We do not know how quickly Southern Pacific can convert from war to peace. Soon transports will be landing thousands of war-weary men at West Coast ports, and many more must be brought back from Europe. These men will want to get home as quickly as possible. We intend to do our best to carry them in the comfort to which they are entitled. This job comes first, of course.

Meanwhile, we are planning luxurious new streamlined trains, new travel comforts and refinements in passenger service, and improvements in freight service. We intend to go forward aggressively with the West, earning our right to serve you solely on merit and performance.

A. T. MERCIER, President

S.P. The friendly Southern Pacific

MOST U. S. DOGS EARN THEIR KEEP

Perform Useful Chores for Their Owners in Country and in Town

In the eyes of most persons "dog" spells "pet," yet by far the largest number of America's dogs earn their keep by rendering useful services for their owners, according to the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

By way of proof, it need only be pointed out that of the nation's estimated dog population of 15,000,000, almost eleven million live with families in rural districts—on farms, ranches, and in small towns. Here for the most part they have their special chores—such as keeping an eye on the sheep, bringing in the cows, keeping watch on the home premises, etc.—chores which would otherwise take up the time and energy of a member of the family or the hired man.

The essential usefulness of the dog in American life can be demonstrated in another way. Dogs are usually classified in six distinct groups: Sporting, Hounds, Working, Terriers, Toys and Non-sporting dogs. American Kennel Club registrations over the years show the numbers in the three first-mentioned groups—definitely kept for useful purposes—to be about twice those of the other three classifications. As a matter of fact, it is the exceptionally large number of hunting dogs within its borders that is responsible for North Carolina, with its approximately 980,000 dogs, being the leader in dog population among all the states.

This is not to imply that dogs not included in the so-called working and hunting classifications are not useful. A dog is a dog, whether a tiny Chihuahua or a huge St. Bernard, and is capable of performing many useful tasks taught him by his master. In addition to providing joyful companionship, selfless devotion and other qualities associated with the dog through the ages.

But whatever a dog's contribution to his owner, he occupies a unique position as a member of the family. This is highlighted in a survey made by the Country Gentleman. The study showed that when a dog's health needs looking after the father of the family attends to it in 44 per cent of the cases, the mother in 38, the son in 23, and the daughter in 10 per cent. (From these figures it is evident that in many families more than one person is responsible for the dog's welfare.) The same holds true in the matter of feeding. The mother is responsible for feeding the dog in 73 per cent of the cases, the son in 27 per cent, the father in 24 and the daughter in 22 per cent.
